* A verger and organist are legally optional, but we normally include them because without them it would be very difficult to celebrate a church wedding with dignity and grace. Please talk to your vicar if you have any questions.

 Our organist attends to advise and support if other musicians are involved, and to supervise the PA system etc.

 Flowers are normally placed in church ahead of Sunday services, except during Lent, so there is usually no need to pay for flowers. If you would like special flower arrangements, this may be arranged by negotiation with the flower-arrangers.
